

InScribe Prayer Advisor Role Description

Purpose: To maintain the focus on prayer as foundational to the craft of writing as well as the work that we do together as a fellowship of writers.

Responsibilities:

- A. Connects with and prays for individual members:
 - pray a specific passage of Scripture for individual members on a month-to-month basis and inform them on the day they've been prayed for.
 - respond to emails from members, and pray for requests shared
 - make members aware of organization-wide prayer requests especially related to our annual conference or workshops.

- B. Connects with and prays for executive:
 - Attend executive meetings when possible
 - Receive exec minutes and prayer requests; pray for executive generally and specifically
 - When possible, attend monthly member care/regional rep zoom meetings.

- C. Oversees & connects with prayer team:
 - Recruit prayer team members as needed
 - Share specific prayer requests and praises with the prayer team by email, maintaining confidentiality, where needed

- D. Connects prayer to writing:
 - Consult with FellowScript editor to facilitate a regular focus on prayer and writing.
 - Consult with event coordinators to ensure that prayer undergirds every InScribe event; e.g. begin WordShops with a devotional on the writer's prayer life; facilitate a prayer room at fall conference, etc.
 - Suggest ways to focus on prayer on our blog; e.g. make prayer the focus on the blog in January (the beginning of a new year) by having each post about some aspect of prayer in the life of the writer.
